(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)
MOSCOW, July 6.—The first 24 hours of Nazi Germany's new offensive in the Orel-Belgorod sector has cost the enemy more than 800 tanks destroyed or damaged, the greatest single day's loss of the entire Russo-German war, an official Soviet announcement disclosed this afternoon.

By NATALIA RENE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
MOSCOW, July 6.—The southern front in Russia was ablaze today with a series of furious battles precipitated by a long-expected Nazi summer offensive which already has cost the Germans almost 10,000 dead in 24 hours of fighting.

The first 24 hours of the offensive drive, said Red Star, official organ of the Soviet army, the Germans made practically no progress.

Fierce Battling
The fiercest battling since the Red army crushed the Nazis at Stalingrad and drove Hitler's legions westward from the Caucasus raged along a 156-mile line on the Orel-Kursk-Belgorod front as Soviet forces repeatedly carried strong thrusts by German mechanized units.

The high command in its noon communique brought the toll of German dead since the offensive was launched at 4:30 a. m. yesterday to 9,000. A total of 153 more Nazi tanks were disabled, bringing to 738 the number so far lost by the Germans in their formidable drive. Some 203 Nazi planes also were shot out of the skies by the Russian defenders.

Battle On Russian Front Is Growing

(International News Service)
LONDON, July 6.—The gigantic battle on the southern Russian front is extremely fierce and growing in scale, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Moscow today.

The fighting in the Orel-Kursk sector, said the Evening Star, has resulted in "the greatest tank battles of the war."

According to the Evening News, the weight of the new German onslaught proves that "in spite of its losses the German army is a vast and formidable force and still directing the bulk of its power against the Russians."

U. S. Forces Are Making Progress

Operations In New Georgia
Are Proceeding According To Schedule

JAP REINFORCEMENTS
ARE ANTICIPATED

By JOHN HENRY
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
AN ALLIED SOUTH PACIFIC BASE, July 6.—Allied military operations in the New Georgia group are progressing "according to schedule" but arrival of heavy Japanese land, sea and air reinforcements must be anticipated, a competent spokesman said today.

The northeastern approaches of New Georgia Island itself are being contested, it was said, but United States troops now fully control the southern region.

Sketchy reports from the Vura and Wickham anchorage sectors of Vangunu Island south of New Georgia indicate all objectives have been attained there. American casualties over all were described as light.

The enemy, it was said, has 200 planes in the area and can ferry in additional ones whenever desired.

Jap Attack Fails
Meanwhile, the spokesman disclosed that Japanese naval units which had been captured Rendova Island Saturday night merely wasted 100 shells.

The bombardment obviously was aimed at silencing American batteries which have been mercilessly lobbing shells into the Jap base at Munda point, in western New Georgia, but was a complete failure.

The enemy garrison at Munda point remained in a highly un-healthy position as the bombardment from Rendova continued and Yank forces, pursuing infiltration tactics, increased the threat to the Jap base by making good use of (Continued On Page Two)

Plan Greater Aid To China

New Promise By U. S. Of Enlarged Aid To China
To Be Made

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, July 6.—A new promise by the American government of increased aid to China and further intensification of the war against Japan today is expected to be made within the next 24 hours.

The promise will be made in connection with the sixth anniversary of the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese war.

President Roosevelt is expected to give the promise in a special message of encouragement to the Chinese nation.

It is believed that the increased direct aid will be chiefly in the form of aircraft, which can be flown from India to China along the aerial supply route.

U. S. Troops May Go
However, it would cause no surprise in diplomatic circles in Washington if American troops were sent to China before long to help protect the advance Chinese airfields from which U. S. planes may bomb Japan before the year is out.

Diplomatic observers regard as no idle boast the 4th of July day promise of Gen. Claire Chennault, commander of the United States 14th air force in China, that his men would fly over Japan many times in the coming year.

The aerial supply route to China is being developed to a point where it will soon carry a greater volume of military equipment than was transported over the Burma road prior to the Japanese occupation of Burma.

"The battle for Europe has begun in a distant salient and soon will flame on nearer the coasts and in nearer fields," said the News.

"History is on the march once more. It may march far before the snow falls."

Referring to the announced destruction of 586 German tanks in the Russian midnight communique, the military expert of Reuters termed the feat a "massacre." He suggested that the Nazi mechanized units either ran into a trap or that the Russians have developed extremely effective new anti-tank defenses.

FOOD SUBSIDY
ACTION IS NEAR

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, July 6.—Democratic Senate Leader Alben Barkley predicted today that a compromise bill to authorize a $700,000,000 roll-back and food price subsidy program.

With this victory in sight and controversy appropriation bill problems nearing final solution, Barkley said congress may be able to recess late Wednesday until after Labor Day. The senate agreed to limit debate to speed a vote on the subsidy issue.

Sen. Robert A. Taft (R) Ohio, author of the compromise program which was evolved after President Roosevelt vetoed a bill to outlaw roll-back subsidies, said that it definitely limits subsidies.

"Under present law the administration claims unlimited authority to pay subsidies," Taft said. "This amendment limits them. Congress gave away powers under broad terms in the price control act and now recalls some of them."

Messina Again Heavily Bombed

Daylight Raid Is Made On Ferry Terminal Of Sicily
By Yanks

(International News Service)
CAIRO, July 6.—Liberator bombers of the United States ninth air force have wrought heavy destruction on the ferry terminal of Messina, Sicily, in a formidable daylight raid, middle east headquarters announced today.

The Liberator formations battered harbor installations, hit the railroad station, a goods yard, engine sheds and infantry barracks. Fires and explosions were started in the target areas.

Three out of a force of Axis interceptor planes were shot down while all of the American craft returned safely to base.

Attacking in waves, more than 60 Liberators carried out the attack, hitting the terminal with 375,000 pounds of bombs which blanketed important installations and caused "extensive damage," official quarters said.

Bombs fell the whole length of the railway tracks, while the roundhouse exploded and caught fire. Large blazes were started at the central station engine-sheds, the warehouse and among rolling stock in the maintenance yard.

Three Axis interceptors were destroyed, one was chalked up as a probable and five others were damaged.

Gen. Giraud To Discuss Military Matters On Visit

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 6.—The White House made it clear in a one-sentence statement today that Gen. Henri Giraud, French commander in chief in Africa will discuss only military matters on his visit to the United States.

This indicated that the United States government would keep hands off the reported differences between Gen. Giraud and Gen. Charles de Gaulle, who are the co-chairmen of the French national committee of liberation.

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, In North Africa, July 6.—American flying fortresses shot down 30 out of a force of more than 100 Axis planes in a terrific dog-fight over Gerbini, Sicily, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced today.

The engagement, the most bitter of the war to date in the battle for Sicily, was fought as heavy bombers of the North African air forces raided the airdromes at Gerbini, Licata, Marsala and Sciacca.

Other blows were loosed against objectives in Sicily and in all the Axis lost a total of 42 craft.

Cost 12 Planes
The sizeable raids in the face of increased enemy opposition cost the Allies 12 planes.

The squadrons from North Africa were joined in the raids on Sicily by American Liberator bombers of the United States Ninth Air Force in the Middle East which blasted the ferry terminal of Messina, on the eastern shore of Sicily opposite the toe of the Italian boot.

Heavy damage was inflicted on the landing grounds at Gerbini, (Continued On Page Six)

Equipment At NYA Centers To Be Transferred

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 6.—A jovial, pink-cheeked Santa Claus, his sack bulging with $97,000,000 in assorted plums for states, counties and municipalities, burst forth from the waning congress today in the form of the dying National Youth Administration.

The properties of the NYA, including hundreds of machine shops and buildings and thousands of machines, would be made available to state, county and municipal boards of education and vocational training boards under an amendment in the second deficiency bill.

The amendment, submitted by Sen. Kenneth D. McKellar (D) Tenn., and approved by the senate, provides for transference of title to the properties of the NYA on proper application to the treasury department.

Owens Much Equipment
Aubrey Williams, director of the erstwhile NYA, described this largesse today as follows:

"The NYA owns $97,000,000 worth of equipment located in every state in the union. It includes 510 communities and 1,400 to 1,500 shops and 40,000 machines and welding units."

The properties include building in which 55,000 students of the NYA (Continued On Page Two)

Man Dies After Being Hit By Car

Resident Of County Home Expires In Jameson Memorial Hospital This Morning

Michael Hasulak, aged 62 years, a resident at the Lawrence County Home, died in the Jameson Memorial hospital at 5:45 o'clock this morning, of injuries received shortly before midnight Monday, near East New Castle, when he was struck by an auto driven by Harry W. Flannery, of 509 Pearson street.

According to the report made to state police, Flannery was driving towards New Castle, from the direction of Ellwood City, and came upon Hasulak, walking along the roadway, at the curve, just beyond East New Castle, the lights of a car coming from the other direction, having temporarily blinded him. He said he did not see Hasulak until he was almost upon him, and was unable to avoid striking him.

Hasulak suffered a compound fracture of the right leg, crushed pelvis, and fractured skull. An ambulance was summoned which brought him to the hospital.

New Regulations On Endorsement Of Gas Coupons

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 6.—The OPA today issued new regulations in the gasoline rationing program requiring endorsement of coupons on the face instead of on the reverse side, as in the past.

Further, the regulations stated all "A," "B," and "C" coupons must be endorsed as soon as they are received by the applicant, instead of when the gasoline is purchased from the filling station.

Immediate endorsement of the coupons, OPA declared, would aid greatly in controlling the black market in gasoline and gasoline coupons, and would save time at filling stations, as well.

The new regulations go into effect on July 22, the OPA said, adding that "failure to write in the proper notation by July 22 may result in loss of the ration."

Congress Action Halts Activity At NYA Center

Funds Are Cut Off From NYA Programs In Entire Nation

WORK IS HALTED
IN LOCAL CENTER

Just a week ago the training center of the National Youth Administration located in Cunningham Park was a going concern. One hundred fifty young men and women were being trained as machine operators and welders. Forty men and women were employed in the various branches of the center. Today the training center is done, washed out by the action of congress which refused further funds for the NYA, save three million dollars for liquidation purposes.

All employees, save a skeleton staff of five, have been notified they are through and all trainees have been notified their training has ended," said H. R. Neill, administrator of the center, today. "I have been instructed to wind up the affairs of the center, and to turn over to the Surplusage branch of the United States Treasury. This should take about a month."

Large Plant
The training center in Cunningham Park is a large plant. Contained in it are 6 dormitories for students, one staff dormitory, a recreation hall, 2 shop buildings, a dining hall, a garage, a utility building and an administration building. In the two shops are many lathes, milling machines, shapers and grinders, worth a lot of money. In the dining hall storeroom is a (Continued On Page Six)

Commando Raid Is Made On Crete

British Patrols Make Sortie Against German-Held Island, London Reports

(International News Service)
LONDON, July 6.—The spectacular landing of British patrols on the German-held island of Crete were seen today as a forerunner of promised Allied landings in enemy-occupied territory in preparation for invasion of the continent.

The sortie by British troops against German airfields and supply dumps marked the first return of Allied units to the important island and bastion since the Germans overran Greece and invaded Crete with paratroops.

The operations were carried out by small commando-type units which succeeded in destroying numerous grounded airplanes and supply dumps.

All of the patrols which went ashore on Crete withdrew safely, said the communique, disclosing the raid carried out on Sunday night.

Informed quarters explained that while the raid on Crete was not a major effort it may be the start of a number of quick sorties and feints against the European coastline to harass and unnerve the Germans and Italian defenders.

Many of the troops which took part in the landing on Crete were reported to have fought on the island and previously. There fore they knew their objectives well and carried out their mission with a maximum of speed.

Recapture of Crete would provide the Allies with a base from which to dominate the Aegean sea and it would serve as an excellent spring-board for invasion of the Balkans.

MARRIED ON MONDAY

HOLLYWOOD, July 6.—Blonde Betty Grable was to return to work today in her new film, "Pin Up Girl," after a one-day honeymoon with Harry James, swing band leader whom she married in a five-minute ceremony early yesterday at Las Vegas, Nev.

The board announced that James, who is 27, automatically lost his 3-A "family man" classification when he was divorced recently in Juarez, Mexico, by his first wife, since he no longer maintains a home for her and their child.

Naval Battle Being Fought In Kula Gulf

Details Of Naval Engagement In New Georgia
Area Are Not Revealed

BOMBERS KEEP UP
ATTACKS ON JAPS

BULLETIN
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 6.—

Indicating that American Pacific fleet units have won the first round of the new Solomons sea battle, the Navy today announced "some damage" to U. S. vessels but emphasized that "considerable damage was inflicted on the enemy."

At the same time the Navy announced that the 2,100-ton U. S. Destroyer Strong was sunk by enemy torpedoes during the warship bombardment of Japanese positions in Kula Gulf preceding the naval engagement in that area.

By LEE VAN ATTA
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS, In Australia, July 6.—Allied planes and United States warships today maintained concerted bombardments against Jap positions in the embattled Solomon Islands while the Allied air arm continued assaults on the enemy's New Guinea bases.

The mounting fury of the engagement to drive the Nipponese out of strongholds in the Solomons was indicated in a terse navy communique from Washington disclosing that a bitter naval battle is being fought in Kula Gulf between New Georgia and Kolombangara Islands.

Although the Japs sent warships into waters off Rendova Island shortly after American occupation at the start of the offensive, the engagement in Kula Gulf marked the first clash between Nipponese and United States war vessels in this campaign.

Battle Develops
The battle was joined apparently after American battle wagons entered the gulf to shell Jap positions at Bairoko Harbor, at the northwestern tip of New Georgia Island, and Vila on Kolombangara Island.

The bombardment of these two points by U. S. warships, supported by Allied planes, was announced in an official communique from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters.

Allied medium bombers and dive-bombers coordinated assaults on the bombardment by the surface craft. The naval forces slipped into position for attack during the night and were accompanied by medium bomber forces.

Numerous fires were started among vital enemy positions, the communique said.

Dive-Bomber Attacks
The combined air and sea assault by night was followed in daylight by dive-bomber attacks in which 1,000-pound missiles were hurled down by the Japs.

Report is made to Pa. Newc that an aviator was doing stunt flying in the South Side on Saturday and Sunday evening, that had the community on edge, flying very low over the houses.

Local victory gardens were treated to a refreshing drenching over the holiday period, over an inch and a half of rain falling Sunday afternoon and Sunday night. It was most welcome, as gardens were beginning to feel the effects of the hot dry weather of the past ten days.

Traffic on streets and highways in this area on the Fourth holiday period was the lightest of many years. Highway routes were almost (Continued On Page Two)

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

LET BABY HELP YOU AT HOME

A few extremists have advised young couples not to have a baby till they can have a separate room for him. Many mothers who have these rooms expect him from the time he begins to toddle until he is four or five to spend most of his time in his room.

These mothers expect the impossible. A tot wants to be where the mother is, to see what she is doing, to imitate her if he can, ask her endless questions and talk with her.

Of course this tot's company as the mother goes about her housework may hamper her and his eternal talk and questioning may also wear her out. But if she wants to be a really good mother she will learn not to be annoyed by the little tyke. Rather she will enjoy his companionship.

Must Learn Obedience

As the tot goes about the house with her he will face dangers, especially in the kitchen. Also he may want to get into all sorts of things he should not, unless she has him well educated in the meaning of NO. It is quite apparent that if the mother is to have this little child with her as she does her work he will need to be taught this precious monosyllable (which she should have to use but rarely). Otherwise she will be driven almost to distraction with him and he won't be happy. Neither you nor the youngster can be happy unless he has learned the first steps in obedience. The lack of early controls often explains their little children to follow them about the house.

In the kitchen, the youngster should know he must not be near the stove, nor reach for things above him on the kitchen sink or table. He will have learned this if every time he did so he received instant, adequate physical pain. Anyway, a spanking is less harmful than hot things he might pull down on himself which might maim him for a lifetime.

Appropriate Play Things

It is fascinating for a child to be able to pull the pots and lids and pans and other kitchen utensils from a low shelf or cupboard assigned to this purpose. Have a box or low shelves in the far corner of the kitchen for his things. Also he should have a vase fastened to a table there with a good saw suited to his age, and some soft boards in addition to a soft plank or box into which he can pound nails.

MOSCOW — Nikolai Malinin, Soviet author, speaking with official Russian approval: "It is no wonder that war aims concern American isolationists, who continue to think that the United States can stand aside from the war, that the United States was drawn into it by President Roosevelt's malice, and that the United States can conclude a separate peace."

SAN FRANCISCO — Secretary of Navy Frank Knox: "We are exerting a major effort in the Pacific and this effort will be increased and intensified as time goes on."

NEW YORK — Brig. Gen. B. C. Dunn: predicting that army engineers will play an important part in the invasion of Europe: "In New Guinea, the army engineers were the first American soldiers to engage in ground fighting. In North Africa, they landed at Oran. In the Aleutians, the engineers built landing strips and airfields in 4 to 15 days."

LEM WORTLE, THE PRACTICAL JOKER

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 8:32. Sun rises 5:37.

Some important things should be done in some places before the war is over.

We think, as a rule, it is much better to tolerate people than to hide away and become a hermit.

It will be interesting to see how many stray dogs the police will shoot in this city. The stray curs might get it if they hang around the auto garage in the city building.

A U. S. Senator thinks the auto stamp tax plan is a pay-as-you-don't-go-tax.

One of the most graphic descriptions of an afternoon tea was given by Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, who said, when the fluttery hostess who had gone to great pains to see that the cream of her acquaintance was on parade and quite expected for an effusive admiration from the learned man, inquired as he left: "Well, doctor, what do you think of afternoon tea?"

"It is giggle—gabble—gobble—gill!"

You are quite clever these days when you know where you are going.

Safety begins at home. Or should so, dear legislators, how about passing a law prohibiting waxed floors?

Woman at a South Side party said: "Laughing at husband's jokes is a wifely duty, and so I do it."

While we don't make a habit of sipping pure eavesdropping, the other day we overheard Miss Ophelia ask Jimmy Cigarettes if he thought dying the hair is really as dangerous as some of the doctors say, and Jimmy replied: "You bet it is. WANTED TOO MUCH

A hospital had advertised for help and a man applied to the head nurse.

"I want a man to do odd jobs around the place, run errands and never answer back," the nurse said. "I want someone who is always ready to do my bidding."

"No sale," said the job applicant. "What you want is a husband, not a servant."

If you cannot write pleasant things to the soldiers, don't write anything. The soldiers have enough to worry them without being told unpleasant things from home.

In the District of Columbia it's illegal to take a drink of liquor standing up. Some people who take it sitting down can't stand up afterward, anyhow.

A scientific fact finding committee agrees that the human race has been in existence for 16,000,000 years. Well, if it has taken them this long to learn the art of civilization by war, it isn't likely Henry Wallace's globalism visionary utopia will be put into effect for another million years or so.

Personally, we would not want any property we own to get into government hands to be controlled.

Very often when criminals are tried in court they are declared mentally deficient, whatever that is.

One of the faults of civilization is that happiness and intelligence are rarely found in the same person. Happiness means relaxation and freedom from fear and a lack of tension. Intelligence, on the other hand, means mental activity and alertness. . . a consciousness of conditions that surround us.

A local man has figured it out this way: "There is only 18 inches between a pat on the back and a kick in the pants."

A confectioner in Alliance, O., was sent to jail for 30 days for selling highpowered beer. Hic!

Because of shortage of materials and priorities, we understand that writing ink will be made from lamp black and glue which will be news to a lot of folks who have been stuck by signing on the dotted line.

More than one hundred million Bibles have been printed and put into circulation in one year before the war. The system of distribution must be faulty because somehow they don't seem to have reached the right people.

An attorney noted for his defense of the poor against the rich, attended the funeral of a millionaire.

The clergyman just had started when a friend of the attorney's came in.

"How are the services?" he whispered.

"The minister had just opened argument for the defense," the attorney answered.

There is an impression among some people that civilization will have to be reborn. It is not encouraging to think we may have to go through that again.

It is claimed that meats will not figure much in the coming American diet. It hasn't with a great many people already.

All fool-proof inventions are for the other fellow.

What's in a name? Well, high-class gentlemen can cooperate with the foulest criminals with a clear conscience if it is called politics.

Balkans May Be Arena Of European Invasion
Recent Events Point To Possible Thrust There
Situation Is Similar To That During Last War

WASHINGTON, July 6.—On the eve of Allied invasion of Hitler-held Europe these thoughts present themselves as a possible last-minute forecast of where the United Nations may choose to strike:

Salonica and the Vardar and Struma river valleys stand out like sore thumbs among the scores of more natural invasion routes from which the Allies may choose to open the long-awaited second front.

The Balkans may be the theater for the main invasion attack or for a diversion thrust to feint the Axis out of position for the real assault somewhere in western Europe.

Whatever the decision of the Allied high command, recent events in Turkey, the Near East and North Africa are hardly reassuring to Axis commanders in southeastern Europe.

The closing of the Turkish-Syrian frontier for 36 hours recently might have been to screen movements of the British Ninth and Tenth armies in Syria and Iraq. These armies have been heavily reinforced in recent months. The Polish army alone in the Near East, now numbering 100,000 men is probably being re-equipped with arms and munitions captured by the Allies in Tunisia.

This force has asked the Allied high command for permission to spearhead an invasion in the Balkans.

Congress And Economy

WASHINGTON, July 6.

THE VAST and unmeasurable cost of the war is inevitably linked with the great burden of taxes which now weigh heavily upon rich and poor alike—and will weigh more heavily on more people from now on. Everybody recognizes that and accepts it with varying degrees of cheerfulness and resignation. However, as the war goes on and the taxes mount, the conviction grows that while the waste of public funds is indefensible in peacetimes, it becomes intolerable under present conditions. Taxed as never before, it is unnatural for people not to feel that useless and costly agencies must be abolished and those who squander the tax dollars restrained. Unless they feel that way, then nothing makes sense.

Very strongly, and their feeling was reflected in the session of Congress just about to recess. It saved a good many millions of dollars. Despite personal efforts of the President to keep it, the National Resources Planning Board, of which Mr. Roosevelt's uncle was chairman, has been wiped out. The old WPA, after expending over eight billions, has been liquidated. Expensive functions of OWI and OPA have been curtailed, and the NYA also ended. All this is good, but the curtailment could have been much greater. Many more millions could have been lopped off without damaging any essential governmental agency. This being so, the taxpayers do seem entitled to know why so little was done when so much needed to be done. One outstanding fact is that the House has done a better economy job than the Senate. The record shows the House did the cutting, the Senate the restoring.

FOR THIS there are three reasons. The first is that all members of the House were elected less than a year ago and all will come up for reelection next year. But only one third of the Senate was chosen in 1942 and only one third will be in 1944. Thus the House fresher from the people and closer to an election reacted, as always, more quickly to public sentiment than the Senate. The second reason is that it is always easier for entrenched jobholders and the White House to bring pressure on the Senate than on the House. For one thing, it is easier to get at the Senators. For

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

A victory garden will help not only to win the war but it will help you to victory over yourself.

What virtues it requires to have a successful victory garden, what reawakening of long dormant strength and patience, perseverance and restraint.

When I come home from work at night I go into my victory garden—my thirty by fifty foot farm.

A million insects greet me, a thousand succulent young weeds. The soil is dry from the burning sun of the day, the tomatoes must be staked before the evening sun, there is nothing to be done, adishes to be thinned out—a dozen chores that cannot wait.

I rush through my dinner (it's supper now since I'm a farmer), and out I go.

I hoe and rake. I pull and push and dig and kneel and I am bitten by mischievous mosquitoes and pestiferous gnats.

But it's worth it. It's a glorious feeling. It's mine, all mine.

Tomorrow my victory ranch (you see, it's become a ranch by now) will yield me another bunch of radishes.

It's heartbreaching, isn't it, all that work to which we are not used? You have it every evening, I'm sure, the same as I!

Our backs are stiff, our joints ache, we have bites and welts and bumps all over us.

We are dead tired and feel like throwing the whole thing up.

Imagine us doing that kind of work if we had to do it for a living. We'd throw it up in a minute.

But this is glorious! It's our victory garden.

It gives us new confidence in ourselves to see that we can still do a man's work in a touch man's world.

That radish, that mess of beans, that ear of corn, that head of lettuce—that didn't come from a store.

We grew it—it's your lettuce, it's my radish. We worked for it, we cultivated it, we got it right out of the ground that was always there for us, and will be in a million years to come.

That's Victory!

The World and the Mud Puddles

THOSE FROZEN PRICES

The National City Bank of New York sends out every month a Letter to its customers and others desiring the Letter. In the June publication, the writer states that the country's most urgent domestic problem is to make price and wage stabilization work and at the same time keep the producing and distributing organization, which does not function smoothly under rigid prices, in efficient operation.

The mounting dangers constitute the most serious challenge which the Offices of War Mobilization and Economic Stabilization face. They must establish the highest degree of rightness, reasonableness and fairness in administration of the controls, if they are to accomplish their object. They must resist efforts of special groups for exceptions, since every exception leads to demands for others. Particularly needed is closer coordination among the agencies having to do with production, distribution, stabilization and fiscal policy.

Of the dangers in the "hold the line" program, the Letter says, the pressure for higher wages appears to be making most headway.

Arguments that prices should be rolled back to May 15, 1942, is based on the fact that, under the Little Steel formula, wage increases to compensate for cost of living increases since that date are prohibited. It is a mistake to infer from this, however, that wages have been frozen since May 15, 1942, while the cost of living alone has climbed.

According to the indices of the Bureau of Labor Statistics the average hourly wage in the manufacturing industries in March, 1943, was 11.9 per cent higher than in May, 1942; the average weekly wage was 16.8 per cent higher, and the average cost of living was 5.9 per cent higher. These figures indicate that during the ten-month period factory workers had an average increase of 10.5 per cent.

One Man's Opinion

(International News Service Staff Writer)
Well, here it is. Independence Day is over once again and the old ship of state still is plowing along.

She may have barnacles on her hull, her compass may be off a couple of points and her helm may sometimes wobble but she's a good old ship and a sound old ship.

She's sound because she was built right and no matter how the ward-room lawyers may tinker with her chart she always comes sailing into port with her flag flying.

She's seen a lot of crews and a lot of skippers since she was launched but the best of them were no better than she and the worst of them couldn't wreck her.

And she is that kind of ship because she was built by men who staked their lives, their honor and their fortunes on her.

They built her to run fair weather or foul, in high wave or calm and she'll run. She'll run no matter how they twist her rudder or jam her hold.

Thought for the day: She'll run forever.

Allied Base In Philippines Is Believed Plan

(International News Service)
LONDON, July 6.—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's offensive plans apparently call for establishing a main Allied base in the Philippines for final action against Japan, the military expert of the Yorkshire Post said today.

"It can be assumed," said the writer, "that Gen. MacArthur's strategy embraces setting up a main base in the Philippines for action against Japan."

He pointed out that the whole strategy now unfolding in the south and southwest Pacific might cause the Japanese to contract their extended lines and draw back near Japan.

"Japan in her victories has failed in major strategy," the writer said. "She has not gone far enough south and is unable to hold the New Guinea springboard or close in on Australia. She is losing the Solomons."

The writer concluded that Japan, like Germany is now thinking along lines of defensive strategy.

Meanwhile from New Zealand Reuter reported a statement in the Wellington star to the effect that if Rabaul, large Jap base on New Britain Island, is knocked out Japan will have no security short of the chain of islands formed by the Philippines, the Carolines and Marshalls.

"To say this," said the newspaper, "is to assume that the Allies have assembled a force necessary to prosecute this amphibious operation, and that is not assuming too much."

NEWS AND VIEWS AT CAPITAL

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, July 6.—Pennsylvania's township supervisors have declared their intentions of keeping their eyes on the legislature to assure a higher appropriation for rural road maintenance in the post-war era.

The Pennsylvania roadbuilder, sounding board for the supervisors' state association, has pointed out that township road appropriations have been "substantially" reduced during the last 10 years.

At one time, townships shared approximately $11,000,000, although the sum was specifically earmarked for maintenance. Funds for construction and reconstruction had to be raised by local taxation. The 1941 legislature appropriated $8,500,000 for townships and removed the restriction. The 1943 general assembly approved a similar amount but Gov. Edward Martin slashed $1,500,000 from the total.

More than 4,200 state employees have entered the armed forces during the last three years according to Walter G. Scott, deputy secretary of property and supplies.

He disclosed that latest reports from departments revealed that five former employees had died in the service and that a gold star would be placed before their name on the plaques in the rotunda of the main building.

WORKING TOGETHER

American enterprise and its time-tested production methods are meeting and fulfilling the most imposing demands ever placed upon the industry of any country

IT HAS BEEN our privilege to play an important part in war production—geared with the supply services of the Army and Navy, and with almost 19,000 other producers who have worked with us.

Figures show how successful this "partnership" has been. But they do not show the valuable direction and cooperation we have had from Army and Navy officials. Nor do they indicate the fine spirit shown by our suppliers and sub-contractors.

While 18,735 organizations have shared our big job of war production, there have actually been more than 68,000 such "partnerships" established. For, in many cases, several divisions have gone to the same source, for different types of work.

It is interesting to note that nearly three-fourths of the firms which have furnished us parts for war products, employ less than 500 people. Of these more than half employ 100 or less.

We have chosen our sub-contractors and suppliers carefully, in order to secure those best qualified for the work at hand.

In this we have had one great advantage: "Sub-contracting" is merely a wartime extension of a time-honored General Motors method. We have always dealt with thousands of suppliers of materials and parts.

And so we have known how to proceed in establishing sources dependable as to both quality and efficiency of performance—not only among organizations with which we have formerly worked, but also with thousands of others.

This sub-contracting "know-how"—combined with manufacturing "know-how"—is largely responsible for the consistent quality of the war goods produced. It also accounts for cost reductions totaling hundreds of millions of dollars.

The "partnership" of the Armed Forces, General Motors and the thousands of other businesses involved—some large, some small—is but one example of cooperative wartime endeavor by the automobile industry.

All companies in this mass-production industry have been cooperating with one another—and with organizations not formerly supplying the automotive industry—in order to utilize all knowledge and facilities suited to the task.

The success of this method demonstrates one fact of tremendous importance to all Americans:

American enterprise and its time-tested production methods are meeting and fulfilling the most imposing demands ever placed upon the industry of any country.

Double Talk On Gas Rationing Is Condemned

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—Denouncing "confusing," contradictory double talk on the part of government spokesmen, Keystone automobile club officials recently appealed to authorities to straighten out the muddled handling of the gasoline situation.

Urging appointment of Bernard Baruch to head a gasoline settlement committee, the club pointed out that gasoline rationing in the east are at the starvation point while pleasure driving in the west is "virtually encouraged."

Petroleum Administrator Ickes was reported to have publicly stated that stricter rationing in the mid-west could help relieve the east, it was pointed out, yet nothing has yet been done.

"Confused conditions prevailed when Baruch took over the rubber mess," the club said. "And he can straighten things out again."

Newsprint Cut
Of Five Per Cent
Is Now Ordered

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Cuts in newsprint up to five per cent for the third quarter of the year were announced today by the war production board.
The five per cent reduction affects newspaper publishers who consume more than 500 tons of newsprint in the three-month period from July through September. The WPB said.
The percentage cut in newsprint consumption is scaled downward, and publishers using 25 tons or less during the third quarter will suffer no reduction in newsprint allotted.
Under the original newsprint limitation order, publishers were limited to 100 per cent of the tonnage used in 1941. At that time, WPB stated, it was estimated that to meet such a requirement there would have to be an overall reduction in the current newsprint production of approximately 10 per cent.
WPB said, however, that the reduction was not accomplished and a further cut was found to be necessary. With this in view, the newspaper industry advisory committee recommended that the five per cent be made for the third quarter, effective July 5.

Adolph Hoffman who lives outside the city and who became drunk and disorderly in Moravia street July 3 was fined $25.00.
Max Wasilewski fought Officers Nelson, Allier and Flegler in a Long avenue restaurant where he reportedly was disorderly and was fined $25.00, plus $7.00, for breaking a police car window. Eril Hill, East street, who visited police headquarters to intercede for him, became disorderly, police claim, and was fined $10.

ton of canned foods, and in the other buildings is a lot of equipment.
Since the N.Y.A. established the training center, about 1400 young men and women have been trained either as machine operators or welders. For the most part they are now in private industry. Roads have been laid, a large sewer system underlies the property and it looks like a small army camp.
Funds Cut Off
"In closing out the N.Y.A. congress failed to provide sufficient funds for the transfer of the young men and women in training into other lines," said Mr. Neill. "Many of them have finished but part of their training and live in areas where such training is impossible to obtain."
"Since coming to New Castle in August, 1942, I have found the industries here most co-operative," said he. "They have aided our work immensely and in turn we have been enabled to turn over to them trained machine operators and welders."
County Superintendent of Schools John C. Syling and his colleagues have also been helpful in aiding the program here and in winding up the affairs of the center. I want to express my appreciation.
The future of the training center is uncertain. There is a proviso in the bill liquidating the N.Y.A. which permits school districts or municipalities to take over the centers, it is said. Whether such disposition will be made here is not known.
Aubrey Williams, national director of the N.Y.A. states that the liquidation of the N.Y.A. means the stoppage of train of 1000 people per day for war industries.

WALTER LIVERMORE
INJURED IN FALL

Walter Livermore, aged 78 years, of R. D. 7, Mahoningtown, was admitted to the New Castle hospital this morning at 11:30 o'clock, with injuries to the right shoulder and right hip, received from a fall while painting.
The extent of all his injuries will not be known, until X-rays are taken. He will be confined to the hospital.

FURIOUS BATTLES ARE REPORTED ON RUSSIAN FRONT

destined for fighting in North Africa, and several thousand smaller tanks to spearhead their infantry drives into the Russian lines.
Counter Offensives
The Russians themselves are losing a series of fierce counterattacks against the Germans on the Kursk-Orel sector, the Exchange Telegraph Company reported from Moscow. The dispatch said that the Germans were using Tiger tanks as the backbone of their offensive.
Although temporary setbacks were suffered by the Red army when the Germans at some points penetrated their defenses, the high command said that the Russian forces repeatedly repelled the Nazi blows.
A force of 100 German tanks on one sector broke through the Red army advanced lines but immediately the Russian defense units cut off the Nazi infantry which followed in behind the tanks and did not let them reach the Soviet lines.
Disabling Tanks
Soviet gunners met the German tanks deep in the Red army defense zone with powerful fire which disabled 38 Nazi tanks. Other tank units retreated in the face of the barrage.
"Although on this sector," said the communiqué, "artillery fire alone destroyed 50 tanks, including 10 Tiger tanks."
"On another sector of the Orel-Kursk front our gunners disabled or burned out 17 German tanks. "More than 4,000 Germans were annihilated."
Around Belgorod, 50 miles north of Kharkov, industrial capital of the Ukraine, the Russian troops fought stubborn battles against continuing German offensive assaults.
"The Germans, concentrated on a narrow sector there against our units large forces of tanks and infantry," continued the communiqué. "Red army men repelled all these attacks."
On one sector held by a single Soviet unit of undisclosed strength another 2,000 Germans were annihilated and 85 tanks were burned or disabled.
London, July 6.—The Nazi-controlled Vichy radio reviewing reports of the Nazi offensive on the southern front in Russia, stated today that "Berlin comments it is an operations strictly local in character."

Huge Attack
LONDON, July 6.—The greatest individual attack yet launched on the Russian front now is underway as the Germans' new offensive grinds against Soviet lines to determine possession of the pivotal rail junction city of Kursk. Reuter's News agency said today in a Moscow bulletin.
The scale of damage to tank units is greater than on any other day of the war, the agency declared.
Hundreds of dive-bombers are being thrown into the action by the Nazis, with the planes hitting at the Red positions in waves of 20 to 30. Meanwhile German guns and mortars are laying down terrific non-stop barrages as the battle mounts in fury.
Although Nazi tanks succeeded in rolling through Soviet defenses in two or three places, the Red infantry is cutting off the armored spearheads from the supporting infantry units, the dispatch reported.
Nazi commanders are attempting to support their left flank by staging a secondary assault north of Orel, while in the southern Belgorod region the attacks are developing along a 40-mile front. At one point there the Germans captured two villages, which subsequently were retaken by the Russians, Reuter's said.

Delay Purchase
Of Parking Meters

Council met Tuesday in city hall and failed to purchase any Mark Time five cent deposit meters from J. R. Rick because council differed as to what Mayor Charles B. Mayne had decided before he left on a vacation. Purchase will be delayed until his return.
Council advised for 165 meters, more or less.
Councilman J. D. Alexander said he understood the mayor was willing to buy up to 165. Solicitor R. M. White said that he understood the mayor desired to buy only a small number of meters, not more than 50, and to take the rest as needed for replacements.
The discussion did not take place prior to the mayor's departure, in council meeting, but in an informal meeting, hence the cause for delay in the purchase today.

The Liberators from the Middle East bombed Messina in daylight, hammering harbor installations, the railroad station, a goods yard, engine sheds and troop barracks. The target area was rocked by explosions and numerous blazes were started.

Thousands Of Air Technicians Are Trained By A.A.F.

Over 500,000 Ground And Air
Combat Men, Or 33 Times
As Many As 20 Years
Before

(International News Service)
KNOLLWOOD FIELD, N. C., July 6.—More than 500,000 ground and air combat technicians have been trained by the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command since March 1941—More than 33 times as many as were turned out in the 20 years previous.

This was made known today by the command in a report from its headquarters.

Directing this huge training program has been Maj. Gen. Walter R. Weaver, who in World War I organized the first aviation mechanics school. To General Weaver is accredited the plan under which the army took over 452 hotels throughout the country for air force training schools.

"Without it (this plan) the TTC could not have met the air forces requirements for technicians. The needed facilities existed in no other form; there wasn't time to build them," the report pointed out.

"The hotel plan saved man hours of labor, critical raw materials, and all types of transportation and storage space, and effected considerable dollar and cents economies."

"Largest In World"
Among the technicians trained under the program—termed the "largest educational system in the world"—is every new officer and enlisted man assigned to AAF combat units, except pilots, bombardiers, navigators and some gunners.

"They include mechanics, electricians, radio operators, propeller and instrument specialists, parachute riggers, and perform all the end-less tasks essential to combat aviation." The report points out that "A good many of them 'double in lead'." They man the guns when enemy fighters attack.

"The headlined heroes who fly the planes, release the bombs, and chart the courses are a gallant minority kept aloft by the graduates of the technical training command."

THE GREAT GAME

another, it is easier for the Administration to do them individual favors. For another, every Senator has more jobholding friends than any House member, and his disposition to protect them is stronger. Most Senators feel a certain obligation to Administration officials for favors asked and received. Many House members are resentful over what they asked and did not get.

THE THIRD reason for the House record is more potent than the other two. It is connected with the Republican leadership. In the House, under Representative Joseph Martin, the minority leader, an effective coalition between the Republicans and the conservative, economy-minded Democrats has been formed. It functions well and usually controls the House. The record this year has been made by that coalition.

THERE is no such coalition in the Senate. It has not been formed because the Republican leader, Senator McNary, is not following a coalition policy. In consequence, it has not been possible to effect a controlling anti-Administration combination along the House lines and a good deal of the House has done in the way of economy has been partially undone in the Senate where Republicans voted more as individuals than as a party. Senator McNary is popular among his colleagues and an astute politician. He has many agreeable qualities, but he is inclined to take a local rather than a national point of view. Oregon is usually his first consideration, and his ability to adapt himself to conditions is attested by the fact that he has been twice re-elected since the New Deal began. Not many Republican Senators have gotten more from a Democratic Administration than he. This session Senator McNary has cast few economy votes. Certainly he has not been a leader in the economy fight. In this connection it is interesting that the Senators who most solidly and consistently voted economy at this session are the nine new Republicans elected last fall. The other Republicans voted some one way, some the other, but not according to pattern or following a leader.

REVEALING, also, are the anti-economy votes of some of the conservative, anti-New Deal Democrats. For example, Senator George, of Georgia. Considering these things, it is easy to understand why the House has been the effective body on matters of economy. Most observers believe the real economy Congress will be the one that assembles after the 1944 election. They also believe two things about that Congress—first, that, no matter whether Mr. Roosevelt is re-elected or not, the Congress will be Republican; second, that, with a new mandate from the people, it will slash appropriations as they have never been slashed before.

American Dogs No Longer Overfed, Under Rationing

Pets Can Be Well Fed On Available Items, And Be Better Off, Says ASPCA

By JANE COCHRAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, July 6.—Feeding Pido under point rationing is a matter of ingenuity—and winning the battle of who is master.

"Pet owners have to come to the realization that their dogs can't continue to eat the kinds of foods they've been accustomed to, but they can be well fed," an official of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals declared.

American dogs, veterinarians point out, have usually been overfed in the past and can stand a little reduction in diet without harm.

"Many of the common and ordinary sources of food supply are not available but there's plenty left to provide a sustaining diet," the ASPCA points out. "Care should be taken to avoid sudden changes in diets of animals long accustomed to a given type of food. However, the change can be made successfully if done gradually."

The ASPCA has outlined a non-rationing diet for pets. Dry and dehydrated foods for pets are still in the market in the form of meat biscuits, kibbles or dehydrated products.

They can be moistened with pot liquors and water from cooked vegetables mixed with table scraps.

Vegetables may also be added to the diet. To induce your dog to eat them, mix them in with his meat.

Coal Production
Nearing Normal

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 6.—For the first time in two turbulent weeks, production of critically-needed coal approached normal today as thousands of hitherto muffled miners in Western Pennsylvania's bituminous fields recanted threats to remain idle indefinitely and instead voted to return to the pits.

John J. Kelly, international representative of UMW district 2, embracing the Johnstown-Clearfield area where the bulk of this section's 45,000 striking men was concentrated, said he looked for 100 percent attendance in the mines today, less the usual absenteeism rate following a holiday.

"Every local that I know of will be working today," he declared. "I have not heard of a single local voting not to resume mining."

An indication of the ascendancy of the back-to-work sentiment was seen in the disclosure that only 4 "captive" mines in district 5, including the Pittsburgh section, failed to operate yesterday during the holiday.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO HOME CANNERS

The Glass Top Seal Fruit Jar Cap for Home Canning was developed as a Wartime product to conserve metal. It consists of a Metal Band, Glass Lid and Rubber Ring.

Because of the difference in the nature of these three materials this Cap must be used differently from any other fruit jar cap. If used properly it will give excellent results. If not used properly, results will be bad, including failure to seal and breakage of jars. Following are simple instructions for use of the Glass Top Seal Cap and must be followed carefully.

1. Do NOT use in Oven Canning.

2. If processing, (cooking in jar), leave 1 inch space in top of jar. If using open kettle, leave 1/2 inch space in top of jar.

3. Fit rubber around projection on bottom side of lid.

4. Place lid so rubber lies between lid and top edge of jar.

5. Turn bands tight, then loosen slightly (about 1/4 turn). Bands must fit loosely during processing (cooking). This is important and must be done to insure best results. If using Open Kettle, screw bands tight as soon as jar is filled.

6. After processing, screw bands tight to complete seal. Remove bands 12 hours after canning.

crease of 57 per cent in real hourly wages and of 103 per cent in real weekly wages.

Warning against the subsidization of the food industries, the Letter says subsidy programs are not automatic in their operation and impersonal in their judgment, as are prices in free markets. They must be administered by overhead authority, and at every point along the line the authority must make decisions. The way is open not only for errors in judgment but for political abuses, for discrimination, and for another entering wedge for detailed government control of business and agriculture.

Subsidies naturally remove incentive for efficiency and low-cost production and distribution. And, by keeping prices to consumers down they make goods more attractive to buyers and add to the difficulties of rationing. Finally, they are habit forming. Once used they tend to spread and enlarge, and they are hard to drop.

SEVENTH WARD

War Department Confirms Death Of Lieut. Horchler

Mr. and Mrs. George G. Horchler of 106 East Cherry street, have received further word from the war department regarding the death of their son, Second Lieut. Clarence W. Horchler, who made the supreme sacrifice in action in the Pacific, June 10, 1943.

The letter follows:
Dear Mr. and Mrs. Horchler: I am profoundly regret that it is necessary to confirm my telegram in which you were informed of the death of your son, Second Lieut. Clarence W. Horchler, 0-797-831, Air Corps, on 10 June, 1943, in the Pacific Area.

The official casualty report received in this office from the commanding general of that area states that he was killed in an airplane accident over the ocean. I deeply regret to inform you that his body was not recovered. No additional details are given; for casualty reports, prepared as they are under war conditions, are of necessity brief. Rest assured that if any further information is received, you will be notified immediately.

Please accept my sincere sympathy in your loss. I hope you may find comfort in the knowledge that your son gave his life unselfishly while serving to maintain the freedom of his country.

Sincerely yours,
J. A. Ulio, Major General,
The Adjutant General.

The council states that vacations must be planned to avoid interruptions of working schedules, and workers are asked to arrange their holidays so as to involve little or no travel.

The picture of the group may be seen in the window of Jack Gerson, East Washington street.

FORMIDABLE FLEET OF BRITISH SHIPS IS IN MEDITERRANEAN

(International News Service)
LONDON, July 6.—A Reuter dispatch from Madrid today quoted the Weekly Magazine Mundo as stating that the fleet of the Italian navy that their territory will be invaded are justified by the presence of a powerful fleet of British warships in the Mediterranean.

Mundo said that among the formidable naval units are the battleships Nelson and Rodney, two King George V class and two Barham class battleships, four aircraft carriers and groups of cruisers and destroyers. These units, it was said, outnumber the whole Italian fleet which 'could not afford to face these six battleships.'

No alien can become a citizen if unwilling to respect the flag. Why have one rule for the naturalized and another for natives?

N.Y.A. Abolition Means Loss Of Trained Workers

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 6—Loss of more than 2,000 semi-skilled workers monthly by war industries in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware as a result of abolition of the National Youth Administration was predicted today by the regional NYA administrator.

As he began liquidating his agency and seeking employment for the 1,300 employees in region 3, John N. Patterson estimated that between July 1, 1942, and July 1, 1943, his region had trained 48,000 youths for war industries.

Patterson expressed concern that Congress appropriated insufficient funds for liquidation and to "transfer the thousands of trainees now on the program into other useful pursuits."

Wallace-Jones Feud Growing

Congressional Demands For Probe Are Apparently Spreading

JONES WRITES NEW ATTACK ON WALLACE

By JACK VINCENT
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, July 6—Congressional demands for an immediate investigation of the pitched battle between Secretary of Commerce Jesse H. Jones and Vice President Henry A. Wallace grew in volume today after Jones reopened the controversy with a new and bitter attack on the vice president.

Flinging White House advice to the winds amid reports that he cared very little whether President Roosevelt asked him to resign or not, Jones accused Wallace of uttering "half truths" and "falsehoods" and squandering the taxpayer's money.

Jones requested Sen. Carter Glass (D) Va., chairman of the senate appropriations committee to place in the committee's permanent records a 30-page refutation of Wallace's charges that Jones' Reconstruction Finance Corporation has blacked out the program of the vice president's board of economic warfare to stockpile critical war materials.

Calls For Probe
Sen. H. Styles Bridges (R) N. H., sponsor of a senate resolution calling for a probe of the bitter quarrel in the New Deal official family, declared that "the latest Jones statement is conclusive evidence of the need for congressional investigation."

Jones and Wallace apparently decided on a showdown battle before the American public between the policies of the RFC and the BEW.

In renewing the attack against Wallace, Jones charged the vice president with "malice," "innuendo," "half-truths," "no truths at all," "unscrupulous tactics," and "falsehoods," "silly," "false" and "ridiculous" statements. He also declared that "squandering the people's money even in wartime is no proof of patriotism."

Personal Feud
Milo Perkins, a director of the BEW and a right hand man to Wallace, attempted to answer Jones' charges in the absence of the vice president, but the controversy by this time has developed beyond an argument over strategic materials to a point where it is a personal feud between Wallace and Jones.

Jones stoutly defended the RFC, denied Wallace's charges that he was an "obstructionist bureaucrat" or was to blame for delays in obtaining vital war materials. He counter-charged that it has been necessary for the RFC to call the attention of the BEW to its "errors and poor practices."

The RFC chief said that Wallace's accusation that he has "harassed administrative employees of BEW" in the acquisition of stock-piles of strategic materials is as silly and ridiculous as it is false.

WILD HONEY BEE IS AFRICAN PEST

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA — American troops and their allies have cleared Africa of the human enemy, but they still face a natural terror in the wild African honey bee.

Arthur Loveridge, a natural scientist who served as a soldier with the British in Africa in 1916, recalled recently that there are records of cases of troops suffering from as many as 100 stings.

Bees loosed from their hives by machine gun fire figured in the battle of Tanga, he said, and for some time the Germans were suspected of using the insects to foil the British. These bees in battle, Loveridge claimed, formed the basis of a dispute lasting several years until the German commander explained that the swarms were stirred into action accidentally and that his soldiers suffered as much as the British by disabling stings.

SPECIALISTS ADVISE SOFT COAL USERS HOW TO SAVE FUEL

(International News Service)
COLUMBUS, O. — Specialists at Ohio State University, in an effort to prevent unnecessary waste of soft coal during wartime, recommend the opposite procedure from that used by most persons in starting a furnace fire.

The soft coal should be placed in the furnace and then the paper and kindling on top of the coal, the specialists advise. They pointed out that starting the fire from the bottom drives off unburned gases.

Soft coal fires should be replenished only after the live coals have been shoveled to the back or to one side of the fire box; and then, the fresh coal should be piled so only a portion of the live coals are covered.

ALASKA TO HAVE AN OIL PIPE LINE

(International News Service)
WINNIPEG, Man., July 6—Four hundred miles of petroleum pipe line on the edge of the Arctic circle will be completed this summer as a complement to the Alcan highway.

It is almost as big a job. Designed to carry gas and oil from Ft. Norman on the Mackenzie river to White Horse, where the products will be poured in the Bering sea and the Aleutian Islands, the pipe line will cross mountainous regions that were unexplored until the war department sent surveying crews two years ago.

One branch of the pipe line will tap the vast tar sands deposits of the Athabasca field. Another segment of the line will bring petroleum from the wells and refinery at Ft. Norman. The two sources are expected to eliminate the need for petroleum traffic on the Alcan route and permit the volume of other supplies to be increased.

DACHSHUNDS FIND JOBS WITH WAAC

(International News Service)

PORT DEVENS, Mass., July 6—It's a doggone shame but Vickie and Peter dachshunds belonging to Gertrude K. Whitman, a WAAC, can't make the grade for the Wags.

Less than 10 inches high, they fail by a good six inches to meet Army requirements for the Canine Corps.

They have qualified, however, for service with the K-9 Corps, organized for undersized dogs, at the Fourth WAAC training center.

Vickie is an auxiliary and Peter a corporal, their ranks corresponding to those of the WAAC and her husband.

Mrs. Whitman recently received news that her husband, serving in England with the staff of "Stars and Stripes," is in line for sergeant, so Peter is due for a promotion.

HIS 1943 VACATION...

48 HOURS!

Just as long as a week-end pass.

That's all many of the boys get these days.

Not time enough for a few rounds of golf... or to flock a fly on a trout stream... or to loll on a beach.

For him, all that went out when the war came in.

Now, his vacation can be measured by the tick of a watch... just time enough for one of Mother's dinners... a long chat with Dad... a good night's sleep in his own bed... a glance at the Sunday morning paper... and back to camp.

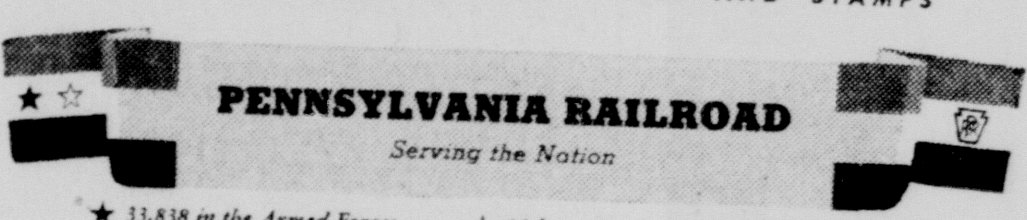

Please think of that young man when you plan YOUR vacation.

If you are going away for two weeks, start your vacation Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday, so there will be seats and berths on week-end trains for him and his buddies. Try to time your travel to accommodate him!

You may not realize it, but right now more than 15 per cent of the total passenger traffic on the Pennsylvania Railroad is Service men traveling on leave. And most of it is over week-end.

So please do your best to time your travel so that it doesn't interfere with theirs!

SEEK MORE LIGHT FOR STREETS OF GOLDEN TRIANGLE

(International News Service)

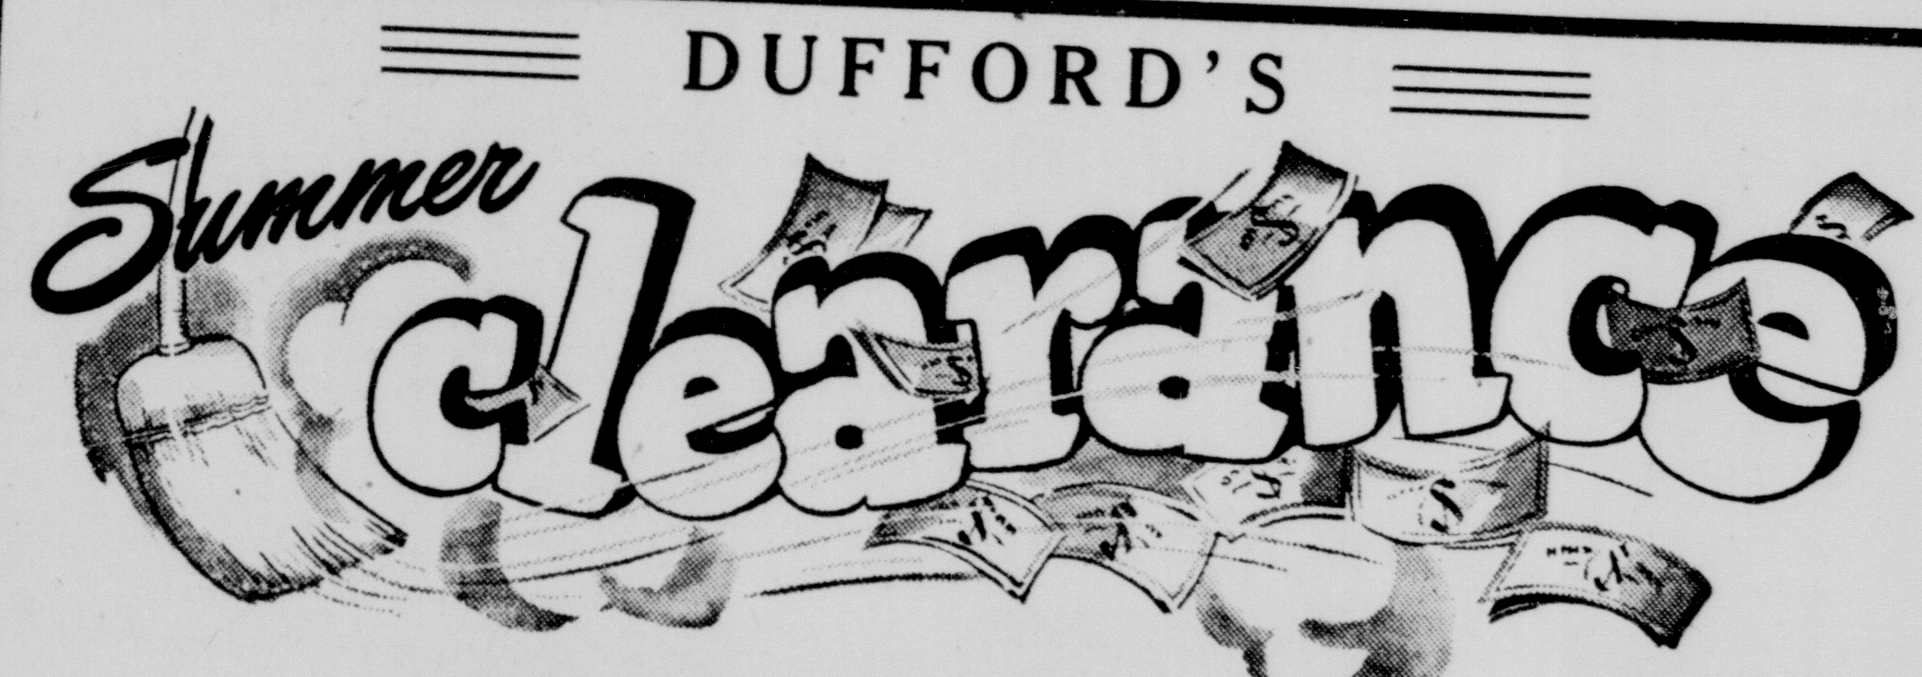

PITTSBURGH, July 6 — The Chamber of Commerce and 10 other business organizations were on record today with an appeal for a restoration of the "white way" street lighting standards in the triangle retail district of Pittsburgh.

Containing that accidents and crime increase when street lighting is curtailed, the business men also pointed out to city council last night that the elimination of many lights which had normally burned before blackout regulations made it desirable that all street lighting continue.

In defense of the city's curtailed light program, Alexander R. Bruwasser stated that the curtailment had saved over $18,000 already this year.

BUS ACCIDENT NEAR HARRISBURG

Twenty-Four Passengers Are Reported Injured; None
Critically

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, July 6.—A Scranton-to-Washington Greyhound bus upset today near the Clarks Ferry bridge, about 15 miles from Harrisburg, injuring 24 of its 47 passengers, none seriously.

State police at the Duncannon sub-station said a right front tire blew out, causing the bus to leave the four-lane highway about one and one-half miles north of Duncannon, careen down a 12-foot embankment and turn over on its side in the old canal bed on the William Penn highway.

State police heard the crash near their barracks and aided the passengers, many of whom were crawling from the windows when police arrived at the scene.

Fifteen passengers and the driver, Theodore Evans, 32, of 85 Grove street, Wilkes-Barre, were removed in an ambulance to the Harrisburg hospital, where it was stated none of them was critically injured. The driver suffered a fractured right ankle.

State police said most of the passengers suffered bruises, others being merely badly shaken up. Many were treated at the police barracks by Dr. Fred B. Hooper, of Duncannon, and Dr. Donald C. Conrad, of the Harrisburg hospital. Additional police were summoned from the Harrisburg barracks to aid in the rescue work and to direct traffic.

Another bus was sent from Harrisburg to pick up the passengers who were able to continue the trip.

Announce Vacancy For West Point Cadet From Here

Both Military And Naval Academies Now Have Openings
For 26th District

Vacancies exist at both West Point and Annapolis, for a candidate from this congressional district. It was revealed today in an announcement by Louis E. Graham, member of congress for the 26th Congressional District. Since the notice of June 12 regarding the Annapolis vacancy, the examination date has been changed from August 21 to Saturday, July 31, it is noted. The announcement follows:

West Point Vacancy
"The War Department informs me that the 26th Congressional District is entitled to the appointment of a Cadet to the U. S. Military Academy in 1944.

Qualifications
"All candidates are eligible for admission from the day they are 17 or 19 if from the Army of the United States, until the day they become 22 years of age, on which latter day they are not eligible; and must be not less than 5 feet 6 inches in height.

Annapolis Vacancy
"The Navy Department also informs me that a vacancy for Midshipmen to the U. S. Academy will exist in 1944.

Qualifications
"All applicants must be not less than 17, nor more than 21 years of age on April 1st of the year of entrance.

Examinations
"Competitive qualifying examinations will be conducted by the U. S. Civil Service Commission on Saturday, July 31, 1943, and all boys desiring to be considered for these appointments are invited to participate. The appointments will be based on the results of these examinations and because of the exacting physical requirements it is advisable that candidates appear before a qualified physician and undergo a thorough physical examination, as such action may eliminate the possibility of candidates being nominated and passing the written examination only to be rejected by the medical officers at West Point or Annapolis.

"All applicants must be actual bona fide residents of the 26th Congressional District of Pennsylvania.

"These preliminary mental tests given by the Civil Service Commission at my request are for the designation of candidates to the Academies and not for their admission. They will be held in the federal buildings in the respective counties and each applicant will be furnished a letter authorizing him to compete and advising him of the time and place of the examination. Since taking office I have followed this policy in making my appointments to the two Service Academies and it has proven satisfactory as it grants to all those interested an equal opportunity and the results are based upon the ratings furnished by the Commission.

There is no need for a personal interview as the appointments will be based solely on the results of the examination.

gressional District of Pennsylvania. All qualified applicants desiring to compete in the preliminary examination must notify me at Room 1628 New House Office Building, Washington, D. C., not later than Wednesday, July 14, 1943, in order that necessary arrangements may be made with the Civil Service Commission. Owing to the large volume of work before the Commission, applications received after July 14th cannot be considered.

Another Report Vacation Trips May Be Allowed

By ERWIN D. SIAS

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, July 6.—Rep. Fred Hartley (D-N. J.) today disclosed that the office of Price Administration will ease the ban on pleasure driving on the eastern seaboard to allow gasoline for vacation trips effective July 15.

Hartley said Dr. Charles F. Phillips, chief of the OPA automotive supply division, warned, however, that only one trip to and from vacation spots will be authorized. Motorists will be required to fill out a vacation intention form with their local rationing board, listing dates and length of the trip, Hartley said.

Only A-card coupons will be honored for the vacation junkets, it was pointed out, and motorists will be given a form by their ration board to be carried on the trip explaining that the gasoline was issued for vacation trip only.

Action came after weeks of pressure by the eastern seaboard congressional "gas bloc" led by Hartley who held that motorists should be given the opportunity to drive to their summer homes or vacation centers and return.

Blimps Provide Ship Protection

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The navy's blimp crews took a bow today following official praise that not a single ship, out of thousands escorted by the sausage-shaped craft, have been lost to submarines. The navy said that twelve squadrons of non-rigid airships now are operating on anti-submarine patrol in the Atlantic, Pacific and the Gulf of Mexico.

These blimps have been operating seven bases in the Atlantic Gulf area, three in the Pacific and five outside the continental limits of the United States. When the war began, the United States had seven blimps, but congress has authorized 200 and the navy said that during the past year "a considerable part" of the lighter-than-air expansion program has been completed.

Latest blimp models carry depth bombs and machine guns and other devices that enable them to spot and trail submarines.

Fans Feel Team Not Playing Over Its Head; Club Has Spirit

CREDIT NEWCOMERS FOR UNUSUAL SPREE

By LEE LINDER
INS Sports Correspondent
PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—Nobody in the once "down-in-the-dumps" baseball Quaker city today feels the Phillies are playing over their heads. That's why the verbal outburst of the Brooklyn Dodgers "head bum," Leap (the lip) Durocher, that "water will eventually find its level," inferring that the Cox-Harris Commandos would wind up in the National league basement, brought only laughs and snickers from Philadelphia's fandom.

Reminds Player
Bucky Harris, the Phillies field commander, hasn't even bothered to publicly reply to "the Lip's" comment, but he has frequently reminded his players of those words, and their subsequent actions on the diamond seem indicative of their answer. It's been years since the one-time National league doormat was in the first division and not so far away from the league leaders that it would be impossible to catch them. Especially with the season only one-third over.

Pack Power, Speed
These three newcomers have added what the Phillies needed most—power, speed and a tighter defense.

Add new-acquired Babe Dahlgren, Jimmy Wascell, Schoolboy Rowe and others, and it's certainly not the same Phils that lost "nearly always" in 1942.

Today they're the "Phillies" not the Phils. And they're "nearly always" winning.

Garden State Track To Open Wednesday

(International News Service)
CAMDEN, N. J., July 6.—Garden State Park officials were all set for the opening of a 50-day meet beginning Wednesday.

More than 200 horses are already at the track.
The $50,000 added Camden handicap, the opening day feature, has attracted 36 entries.
Then came the Haddonfield ration board's refusal to grant the track's application for gasoline and associated petroleum products needed to operate the sewage disposal plant, run sprinklers and other track equipment.

It was thought likely an appeal would be made.

Indies To Play Elders Tonight

Game To Be Played On Mahoning Field; Moose Host To Potters

Held back by inclement weather Sunday, City Baseball league foes resume their interesting battle for first half honors tonight at 6 o'clock.

The top game is scheduled on Mahoning field where the Lawrence Indies, leading the loop by a game and a half, face the dangerous Elder A. C. On Lee avenue field the second place Moose meet the Shenango Potters.

Can Pad Lead
By winning tonight the Indies can practically clinch the championship. Thus far, the Zidowens have added eight triumphs against only three setbacks. The Moose's card shows seven successes compared to five reverses.

Both games should produce an abundance of thrills, especially the Mahoning field attraction.
Thursday marks the close of the first half. The Indies and Moose are slated for action on Lee avenue field while Pottery and Elders swing bats on Marshall field.

Rounders Adds Upset Triumph

Whirlaway Conqueror Wins $50,000 Stars And Stripes Handicap

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, July 6.—Rounders, the Valinda Farm's Irish bred colt, was back today in his chosen role as an upsetter of favorites.

The speedy thoroughbred, which last year astounded race fans by beating the great Whirlaway, just about clinched his title as an upset specialist when he romped home in front of the field of 10, including the 9 to 5 favorite, Devil Diver, in the $50,000 Stars and Stripes Handicap at the Arlington Park meeting yesterday.

Rounders charged down the long stretch at Washington Park, where the Arlington meeting is being held, took the lead a furlong from the finish and came on home a length ahead of Louis B. Mayer's Thumbs Up. Marriage was in third place only a head back.
Calumet farm's Sun again finished fourth, while in fifth was the favored Greentree Stables Devil Diver—with no excuses.

As the second week of drills got under way in Pitt Stadium under the guidance of Shaughnessy, new head coach, the number of candidates for the varsity increased from 51 to 72, but Shaughnessy promised every one of them a lengthy trial.

MARKET WISE COPS BIG RACE

Annexes $50,000 Added Massachusetts Handicap Monday At Boston

(International News Service)
BOSTON, July 6.—Market Wise was firmly established today among the turf greats of 1943 after winning the $50,000 added Massachusetts handicap yesterday and a field of six at Suffolk Downs' sloppy track.

Running gamely from the beginning and driving through the stretch and with a great closing kick, Market Wise shook off a late bid by Salto to pay $440, $340 and $260. Salto, a long shot, surprisingly broke at the head of the pack and held the lead until the stretch, losing out after a spirited fight by only one length to pay $15 and $520 for place.

Third was Don Bingo, Bing Crosby's South American importation, who paid $2.60 for show.

Brooklyn Gains Game As St. Louis Divides; Indians Beaten Twice

Augie Galan Paces Dodgers With Triple And Homer; Newsom Adds Ninth Triumph; Triplet Stars As Phils. Drub Cardinals, 15-2; Vince DiMaggio Socks Ninth Homer; Detroit-Washington Split; White Sox Grab First From Red Sox, Then Lose, 6-1; Cleveland Sinks To Seventh Place.

By JOHN CASHMAN
(International News Service Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, July 6.—One of the most dangerous bats in baseball is being wielded today in the hands of an unassuming gent from Berkeley, Cal., who holds down a pretty responsible job...clean-up hitter for the Brooklyn Dodgers. He is, of course, Augie Galan, who yesterday personally cleaned up for his club in two games with the Chicago Cubs.

Augie's savage clubbing gave the Bums a twin victory, 6 to 3 and 8 to 2, and gave the Dodgers a shot in the arm.

In the first game, a triple by Galan in the sixth inning with the bases loaded broke a 3 to 3 tie permanently. Galan duplicated his feat of the first contest by connecting for a homer in the eighth inning of the nightcap, again with the bases loaded.

Ninth For Newsom
Bobo Newsom went all the way in the opener, yielding nine hits for his ninth twirling triumph, while Kirby Hoge was credited with his fifth victory in the nightcap, although he bowed out in the eighth to Ed Head.

The New York Giants and the Pittsburgh Pirates, meanwhile, were splitting a double-header, the Bucs thrashing the Giants soundly in the opener, 8 to 4, then dropping the second, 9 to 4. Cliff Melton and Hugh East were knocked out of the box in the third inning of the opener, as the Pirates rallied with six runs. Ken Chase held the Bucs to six hits in the nightcap while

Blast Niggling
In the nightcap, the Yankees' steady pounding of Johnny Niggling finally sent the twirler to the showers in the seventh as the Brownies defense collapsed, allowing three unearned runs. Nick Etten, Yankees first baseman, and Vernon Stephens, Brownies infielder, each hit two homers.

The Washington Senators and the Detroit Tigers split their double-header, the Tigers winning a morning game, 10 to 3, then dropping the twilighter, 6 to 4.

Paul Trout held the Senators to six hits in pitching his eighth win in the opener, while the Senators collected 13 hits in the nightcap off Hal White and Roy Henshaw.

GUFFEY COAL ACT LIKELY TO EXPIRE

Indications Act Will Not Be Renewed By Congress
After August 24

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, July 6.—Regulation of the bituminous coal industry today appeared destined to pass "for the duration" into the hands of government war agencies with expiration of the Guffey coal act on August 24.

Administration leaders of the close fight for continuation of the law under which soft coal producers have operated for eight years conceded defeat on the issue.

Although the last hope for a temporary extension was to be reviewed today by the house rules committee, supporters of the legislation admitted "there's not much chance for it now." The bill for a regular two-year extension of the act was killed in a 13-11 vote by the house ways and means committee yesterday.

Some 1,200 bituminous coal commission employees, their office space and equipment will be released for other use in the Washington war effort with formal liquidation of the agency in the next six weeks, house members pointed out.

"We can use all of them elsewhere, their cars and other equipment," observed Rep. Michener (R-Mich.).

With the government now operating the mines as an arm of the coal strike and broad authority vested in solid fuels administrator Harold L. Ickes and price administrator Prentiss Brown, congress saw little wartime effect likely to result from failure to renew the act.

Operators who urged its extension expressed concern for the post-war period, when a production slump may lead to the same price cutting which prompted the original act sponsored by Sen. Guffey, (D-Pa.).

Says Rationing Of Food Can Easily Be Made Unnecessary

(International News Service)

STATE COLLEGE, July 6.—War-time rationing would be unnecessary if mankind only had the wisdom to use the scientific knowledge developed throughout the world to boost production of food and materials, according to Dean Frank C. Whitmore, of the Pennsylvania State College school of chemistry and physics.

He said that the world has the knowledge to produce more food than the human race can consume even if each member ate several times as much as would be good for him.

"Furthermore," he added, "mankind is now situated that he could overproduce all of his requirements of clothing and shelter and any other needs he might face, and thereby make possible the elimination of war waged for economic reasons."

"He must remember that chemistry and its accompanying sciences and applications are in their veriest infancy," the dean continued. "As we gain greater knowledge, we shall find further applications for the thousands of cubic miles of raw materials which we have just begun to use. Our international attitudes must be remade in the light of the future which the creative science of chemistry opens up for us."

"Most of the rulers of the human race are like Hitler in that they are still thinking of the old days of scarcity before 1900 when the only way you could get something you needed was to take it away from the other fellow."

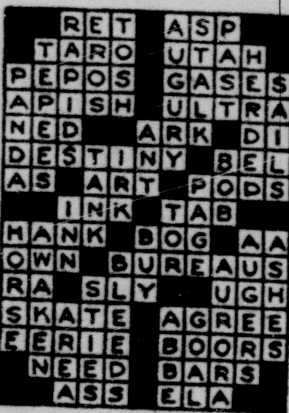

From such diverse raw materials as soft coal, wheat, petroleum, corn, natural gas, and molasses, we shall soon be making synthetic rubber, a commodity heretofore available only from the sap of one type of tropical tree, Whitmore said.

CHILD INJURED

Gertrude Ulrich, aged 6 years, of 223 West Sheridan avenue, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 1:45 p. m. July 4, for a sprained ankle, received in a fall down a flight of stairs at her home.

Allied Offensive Is Believed Near

(International News Service)

OTTAWA, July 6.—The hint that Allied offensives may be very near was seen today from statements of Canadian Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

Replying to questions in the House of Commons yesterday King stated: "There is need of the greatest unity on all sides... events the like of which none of us is able to contemplate are likely to take place in the course of a very few days."

Why shouldn't colored people be movie stars? They are natural entertainers, and even the South ignores the color of a laugh or of music.

Army Publishes Handbook About Life In Alaska

Soldiers Will Find It To Be As 'American As Hominy Grits'

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 6.—The army today introduced its ambassadors "without portfolio" to Alaska, the land of totem poles, vast distances and amiable liars.
In another of its frank, down-to-earth guide books for U. S. soldiers on the fighting fronts, the special service division, army service forces, has provided the chechakho, or tenderfoot, with a handy knowledge of northern Pacific customs, people and terrain.
Unlike their brothers-in-arms around the world, soldiers assigned to Alaska generally will not find themselves far removed from their normal stamping grounds.
"Alaska is as American as hominy grits, baked beans or apple pie," says the army. "It is American in language, customs and politics. It is part of the United States, like Ohio or Alabama."

Some Unvarnished Hints
But just to make sure that some innocent, guileless doughboy doesn't fall for a crusty sourdough's tall tales, or accept as simple truths the things he heard about the rip-roaring days of the '49 gold rush, the army has compiled several unvarnished hints. Among them are:
Don't fall for the one about white-jeworms that crawl out of glaciers on sunny days and make a chirping noise.
Don't let some sourdough get you to take a shot at a low-bush moose, or to squint at that mysterious red bat on the dock at Petersburg that is so dangerous when flying.
Don't take too seriously stories you may have heard or read of the Eskimo custom of "lending" wives to friends or guests. This fashion went out of style long ago. The Eskimo wife is a respected member of the household.

Don't worry about snakes. There aren't any in Alaska.
Don't take too seriously the short "explanations" of totem poles painted on the back of picture postcards. To explain them, with all their history and mythology requires many hours—even days—of a native storyteller's time.

Once "Seward's Icebox"
On the other side, the guide book recalled that the United States purchased Alaska from Russia in 1867 for $7,200,000 on the recommendation of Secretary of State Seward. The territory was described as "Seward's Icebox" until it yielded many times its original investment in fish, furs and gold.
The booklet also counsels soldiers in their relations with Alaskan natives—Eskimos, Indians and Aleuts.
"Don't cheat a native, or take unfair advantage of him," the booklet said. "Do so will make it hard for the rest of your outfit. Never offer liquor to a native. If you have candy, give him some—he is very fond of it."
Furloughs may be spent in fishing or hunting both along the coast or inland. Soldiers are sternly warned about travelling alone in the trackless wilderness.

The principal speaker of the evening was James Evans of New Castle, an overseas veteran of World War I.
